ANNOUNCING VOICE OVER FOR MAROONERS BY M2H GAMES

(New York, New York) M2H & Brittany Lauda are proud to announce voice over as an upcoming addition to party game, Marooners. Directed and cast by Brittany Lauda, the cast includes some of the finest anime and game talent in the industry.

M2H previously worked on the World War I game entitled Verdun as well as the title Crash Drive 2. Marooners is certainly a departure from their previous title, as it is a crazy fun party game focused on cute little characters and mini-games. The game can be played with 2-6 players either locally or online. Players switch back and forth between a mix of fun party games. With multiple game modes, it's certain to be a hit. By teaming up with Brittany Lauda and her talent pool, the team hopes to deliver a little extra oomph to their already diverse and fun cast of characters. Lauda, when asked about her involvement, enthusiastically shared that she "is excited! It reminds me of playing Mario Party when I was younger. I can't wait to challenge the other voice over talent to some hardcore Marooners fun!".
